

2018 SCAPTA "Better Together" Annual Conference
The Medical University of South Carolina, Charleston, SC

Poster Presentations

Saturday, April 14, 2018

9:00-11:45 am

The Atrium

1. Strategies for Addressing Physical Activity in Children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (Caitlin Keller)
2. KinesioTape® Has No Effect on Shoulder Proprioception, Strength, or Control of Movement When Using Robotic Assessment (Robyn Culbertson)
3. The Association Between Physical Activities and Functional Performance: Data from the Osteoarthritis Initiative (Christopher Hopkins, Cassandra Ketchum, Jonathan Suggs, & Drew Van Delden)
4. Mechanical Diagnosis and Treatment in Neck Pain and Dysphagia (Aileen B. Cuenca- Williams)
5. Measuring the Efficacy of Care in a Student Run Pro-Bono Clinic (Nathan Harris and Nick Orten)
6. Integrating College of Medicine Students Increases Understanding of Neurological Rehabilitation (Alyssa Semones, Gerald Roettger, Sara Kraft)
7. Effectiveness of Manual Therapy with Exercise Vs Exercise Alone On Shoulder Impingement Syndrome: A Systematic Review and Meta-Analysis (Bryan Smith, Ryan Hudson, David Cho)
8. Does Utilizing Laboratory Based Patient Scenarios in a Physical Therapist Assistant Neurology Class Improve the Students' Perceptions of Evidence-Based Practice (EBP): A Case Report (Shari M. Tanner)